Groundbreaking for Adam's Project Universal Design Playground

(Ridgeland, MS) – The City of Ridgeland will be hosting a groundbreaking event for the Adam's Project Universal Design Playground at Freedom Ridge Park. The media is requested to attend this significant event in the history of Ridgeland and Madison County. This universal design playground provides an area for play that allows accessibility and the opportunity for full participation for the physically-challenged and disabled. Adam's Project made the project possible through fundraising, awareness-building and the motivation to provide a playground for those with special needs. Various organizations, businesses and individuals have contributed to the project which was inspired by Ridgeland resident Adam Malone who suffers from Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy.

What: Groundbreaking ceremony for Adam's Project Universal Design Playground

When: Wednesday, September 26, 2012 at 10 a.m.

Where: Next to M&F Soccer Stadium in Freedom Ridge Park located at 235 West School Street

Opportunities for video footage, interviews and photos will be available to the media.
